

Concrete Laborers, Finishers, and Carpenters

This position requires the applicant to be in good physical condition. Applicants will be performing 90% of work in an outdoor setting. Applicants will be required to work throughout the year in extreme heat and cold. This position requires repetitive lifting of 5 to 100 lbs and repeated bending during concrete pours, forming of foundations, etc. Applicants must be knowledgeable with the operations of various power tools, skill saws, hammer drills, gas powered hot saws, etc.. Applicants must be able to understand and read tape measures. Applicants must be able to acknowledge particular job task instructions and be able to perform those tasks in a timely and quality manner. It is of utmost importance that the applicant is able to retain knowledge of particular job tasks he or she has been asked to perform. Applicants must abide by all company policies and safety rules.

Contact Erin Hughes erinh@bottorffconstruction.com to apply.